RUBIKS
TECHNOLOGY

A first call is decided in 4 moments. Most firms lose it in the first.

Follow the call, moment by moment.

→ Swipe →

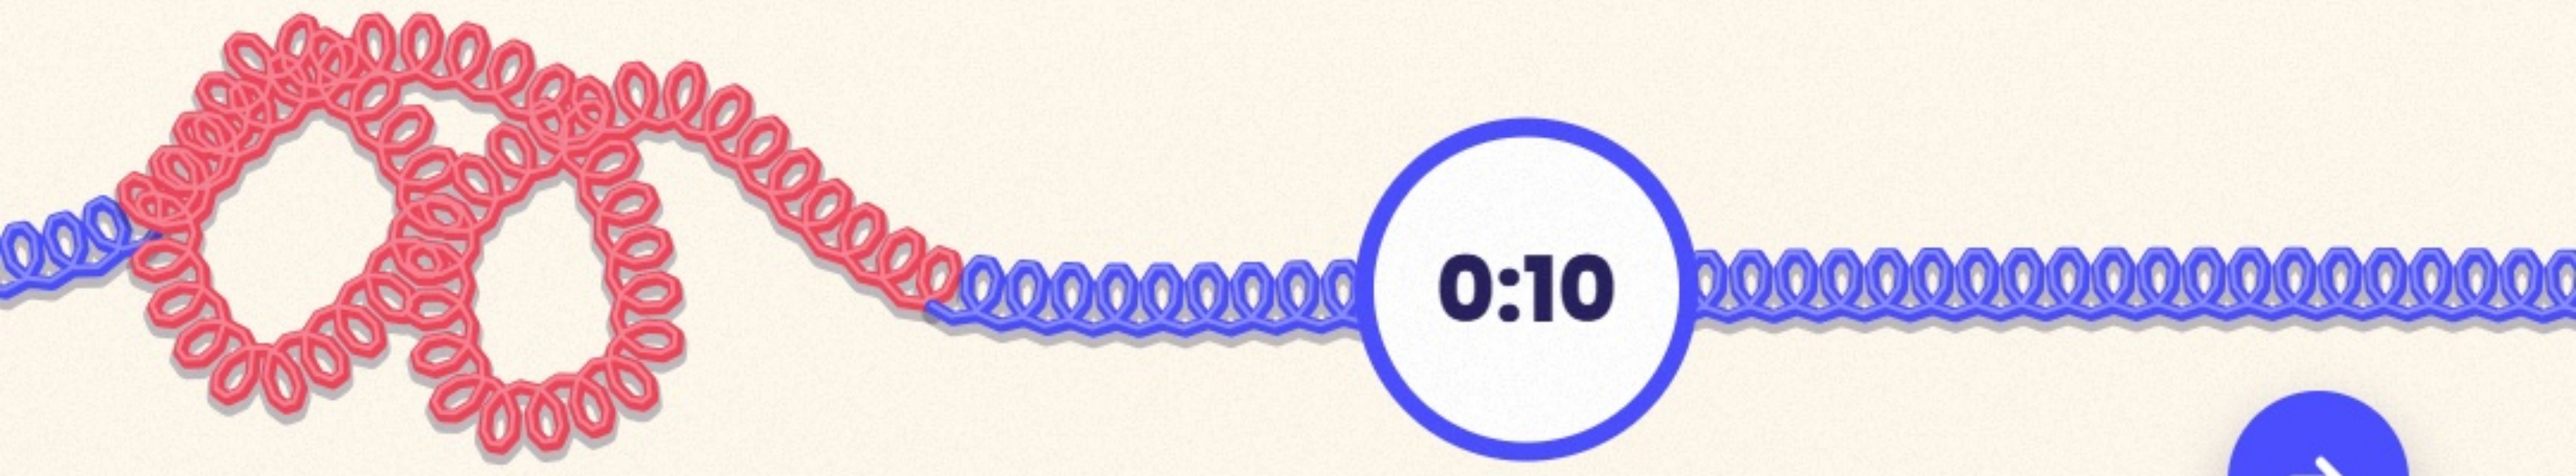

0:10 THE FIRST 10 SECONDS

A warm voice, with a name.

They decide how they feel about you right here.

"Law office, please hold."

"Thank you for calling [Your Firm], this is Sarah. How can I help?"

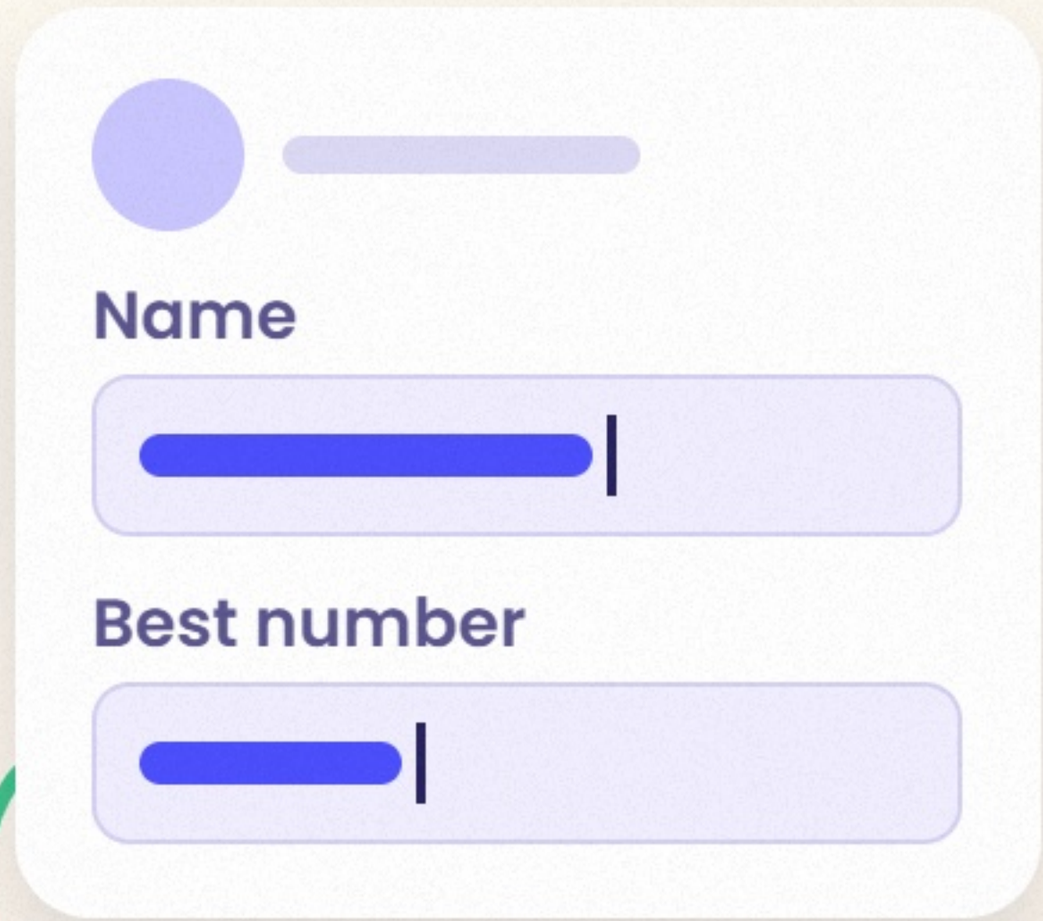

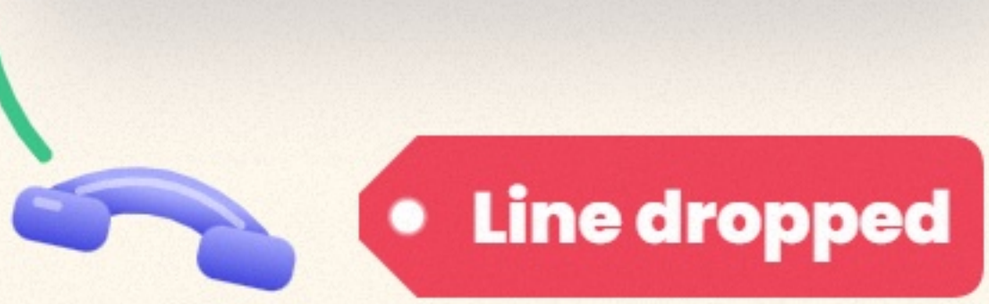

0:30 BY 30 SECONDS

Get a name and a number.

If the line drops, you can still call them back.

“In case we get cut off, what’s the best number for you?”

0:30

2:00 THE NEXT 2 MINUTES

Listen before the form.

People want to be heard before they are processed.

“Tell me what happened.”

2:00

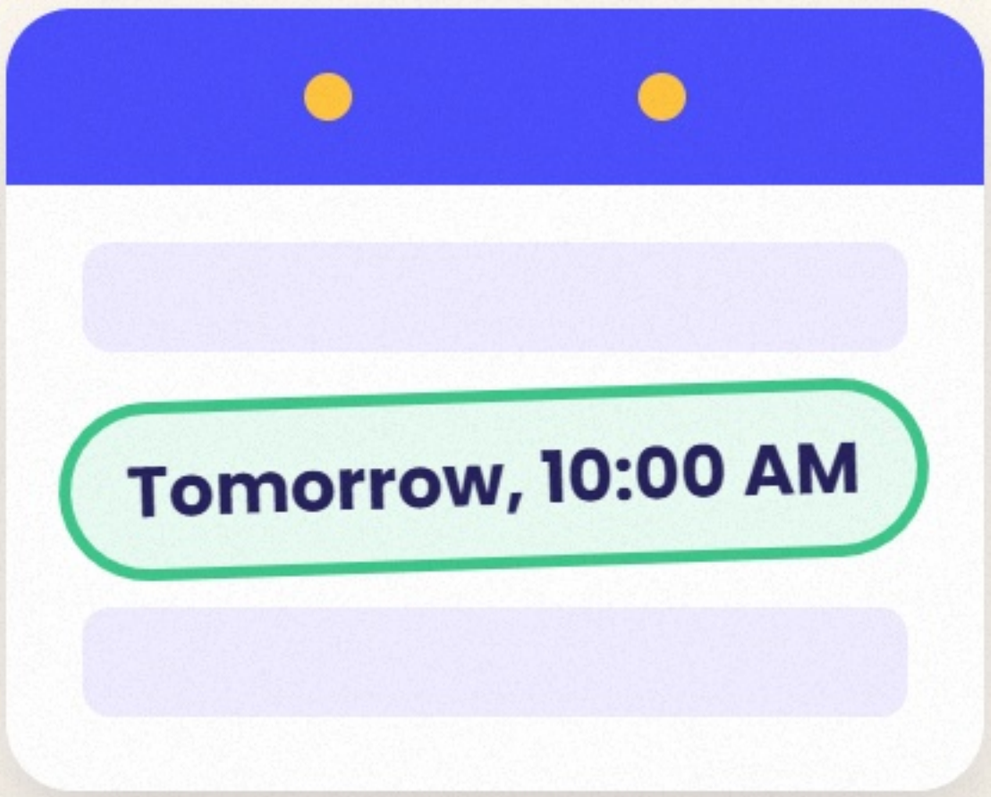

RUBIKS
TECHNOLOGY

LAST 0:20 THE LAST 20 SECONDS

End with a booked next step.

A set time beats ‘someone will call you back.’

“I can get you in with an attorney tomorrow at 10. Does that work?”

THE WHOLE CALL

What good sounds like, word for word.

Save this for your next team meeting.

0:10 “Thank you for calling [Your Firm], this is Sarah. How can I help?”

0:30 “In case we get cut off, what’s the best number for you?”

2:00 “Tell me what happened.”

LAST 0:20 “I can get you in with an attorney tomorrow at 10. Does that work?”

RUBIKS
TECHNOLOGY

Want every first call at your firm to sound like this?

Book a FREE Strategy Call →

info@rubikstechnology.com · or DM us

